

SmartVizs Private Limited Cookie Notice

Effective date: June 8, 2018

Last modified: June 8, 2018

This document is an electronic record in terms of India's Information Technology Act, 2000 and rules thereunder as applicable, and the provisions related to electronic records in various statutes as amended by the Information Technology Act, 2000. This electronic record is generated by a computer system and does not require any physical or digital signatures to make the terms of this policy binding.

SmartVizs Private Limited ("us", "we", "our", "SmartVizX") owns and operates the <https://trezi.com> and <https://trezi.smartvizx.com> websites and their web pages (our "Website") and owns the product named Trezi (the "Product") that can be downloaded from this website (collectively the "Service").

We use Cookies and other tracking technologies on our Website. By using the Service, you agree to the Cookies and other tracking technologies in accordance with this notice, and to be bound by the terms and conditions of this notice. Unless otherwise defined in this notice, terms used in this notice have the same meanings as in our Terms and Conditions, accessible at <https://trezi.com/terms-conditions/> and our Privacy Policy accessible at <https://trezi.com/privacy-policy/>.

Usage Data including Cookies Collected Automatically

When you access our Service (e.g. by visiting our Website via a browser or any other client, or by launching the Product), we automatically collect non-personally identifiable information on how the Service is accessed and used by you ("Usage Data") through tracking technologies and Cookies.

Usage Data includes the following information:

- Your computer's network location and Internet Protocol address (i.e. IP address)
- Browser type and version
- The referring site details (such as the URL of the site through which you came to our Website)
- The pages of our Website that you visit, and time spent on each page
- The time and date of your visit

Cookies are files with small amount of data which may include an anonymous unique identifier. Cookies are sent to your browser from our website and stored on your device. Cookies help us understand how people use and navigate a website, authenticate and remember a user's login details, and store website preferences.

We use the following cookies for our Services to function properly:

- We use the JSON web token (JWT) authentication cookie that authenticates you as a user of our Service and verifies your access to your information you request from servers hosting our Services.
- We use a cookie in the form of a text value that identifies you uniquely by your email address and provides data for email notifications to you.

Third-party tracking technologies use beacons, tags, and scripts to collect and track information and to improve and analyze our Service. We use Google Analytics as the only third-party tracking technology to collect Usage Data and track the activity on our Website and monitor and analyze the usage of our Service. Google's privacy policy can be read here.

It is possible to stop your browser from accepting cookies altogether, or to prompt you before accepting a cookie, by changing your browser's cookie settings. You can usually find these settings in the "options" or "preferences" menu of your browser. The following links may be helpful, or you can use the "Help" option in your browser:

- Cookie settings in Chrome
- Cookie settings in Firefox
- Cookie settings in Internet Explorer
- Cookie settings in Safari

You can opt out of cookies provided by Google Analytics here.

Please be aware that disabling cookies could affect the performance of our Website, Product and Services and some their features may not work as expected.

How Do We Make Changes to this Notice?

We may update this Cookie Notice from time to time. We will post the most recent Cookie Notice in this document and update the "Last Modified" date at the top of this document.
